

FOR MOTHERS TO ASK DAUGHTERS

1. Of which are you more aware: my affection and encouragement or my correction?
2. In what area(s) do you think I need to grow most?
3. Have you observed any area(s) in my life where my example doesn't back up my instruction to you?
4. How can I improve in the following areas? Affection Encouragement Communication

Discipline-Friendship

5. Is there any way in which you think I have sinned against you?
6. Is there any topic you feel that we cannot discuss?
7. In what ways would you like to grow in your walk with the Lord?
8. What is your most difficult pressure or challenge at present?
9. Is there currently a pattern of sin in your life that discourages you?
10. Is there anything you need to tell me that you haven't already shared?

FOR DAUGHTERS TO ASK MOTHERS

1. Do I actively pursue your guidance and counsel? How can I grow in this practice?
2. Do you feel that I value your wisdom more than that of my friends? Why or why not?
3. How would you characterize my attitude toward your authority?
4. What do you think I am most passionate about: my own selfish pursuits or serving in the home? Is there any way I can serve you at present?
5. How can I improve in the following areas?

Honor-Obedience-Gratefulness-Communication-Friendship

6. Is there any way in which you think I have sinned against you?
7. Do you think that my priorities—the way I spend my time—bring glory to God?
8. What skills can I cultivate to serve others and prepare for my future?
9. How have you seen me grow in my relationship with the Lord?
10. Is there anything you would like to discuss that I have neglected to ask?

TWENTY-FIVE IDEAS TO GET YOU STARTED MAKING MEMORIES TOGETHER:

1. Make reservations at a hotel or nice restaurant that serves afternoon tea.
2. Enroll in an art, cooking, or sewing class through your county or at a local retail store.
3. Take up a new sport (tennis, running, aerobics, biking, etc.).
4. Pamper yourselves. Get a facial or manicure and pedicure, or set up your own spa at home.
5. Do a service project (soup kitchen, nursing home, needy family, mom with young children, etc.).
6. Build a fire and roast marshmallows for S'mores. Play board or card games, or put a puzzle together.
7. Start a book club with some mother-daughter friends.
8. Go out for pizza and play miniature golf.
9. Do a cooking project. Bake bread or dessert, or prepare a full-course meal.
10. Get a makeover before a special event.
11. Pick fruit at a local farm and make something yummy.
12. Learn a new hobby, or spend an evening at a paint-your-own-pottery or scrapbook store.
13. Take a walk down memory lane. Watch home videos, look at family pictures, or dig up old family keepsakes. You can even use the Internet to learn what notable events occurred on the day you were born.
14. Schedule an annual mother-daughter overnight and pack it full of fun activities.
15. Do a progressive dinner and hit all your favorite restaurants in one night.
16. Take in some culture at a local art gallery or museum.
17. Go antiquing or shop at yard sales or consignment stores. See who can find the best deal.
18. Interview a relative about your family history.
19. Kidnap your daughter or your mom for a surprise outing.
20. Host a party for some mother-daughter friends. Do all the cooking and preparation together.
21. Collect decorating books or magazines and redecorate your room.
22. Pop some popcorn and watch an old movie together.
23. Have a picnic and read a book out loud, or take a drive in the country and listen to a book on tape.
24. Go to a local bookstore or coffee shop and share what you most appreciate about your daughter or mother.
25. And our personal favorite—have lunch and go shopping!